Dear Paul:

Enclosed is an Ineligible Volunteer Record Sheet for Mr. Albert T. Mitchell. Also enclosed is a copy of the adult application he filled out at his son's Cub Scout roundup.

Mr. Mitchell was never registered in our council. He only applied. The chartered partner, along with our district executive for that district, screened the application that night and discussed the situation with Mr. Mitchell.

As you can see, he admitted to being convicted of previous crimes against nature. He agreed this is not the image Scout leaders need.

I pass this information on to you for your records.

Sincerely,

Tim Cooper

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Carol:

Recently, we had a parent agree to be a Cub Scout leader by the name of Albert T. Mitchell. Enclosed is a copy of his application.

As you can see, he was previously convicted as to conspiracy to commit a crime against nature. Because of this, he has not been allowed to serve as a Cub Scout leader.

I'm sending this information to you so you will have information in your files.

Please call me if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Tim Cooper
Director of Field Service
